

Bridgeport, lay until 8'o'clock this morning when we started for Chatta-- on foot, came about 12 miles when J. W. Loland and I camped. Some went farther, some not so far. Gen. Blair is camped about 300 yds. from here. The Lieut. incharge of us started on a horse came a piece, when the horse gave out the men scattered and every man is going on his own look.

Sat. Nov. 21

Last night two of us built a shed, it leaked, got wet-- Started at 8 --rained nearly all day. Are quartered with some of the 33 New Jersey commissary. I sold my overcoat yesterday for $5.50

Sun. Nov. 22

Got to 64th about 7 A.M. Boys well but few of them here.

Mon. Nov. 23

Last evening got orders to move a a moments notice. Started out to day about 1 P.M. Skirmished some--drove the Rebs back quite a distance. Woods' Division took one line of works and 700 prisoners. This evening we are throwin up breastworks. Have to go on picket. Wrote a letter home.

Tues. Nov. 24

Quite an exciting time. Dug riddle pits along the picket line. A line of breastworks were thrown up at the picket line. A line of breastworks was thrown up at the same time in our rear. Were relieved about noon from Picket Our men are shelling Lookout Mountains--have taken most of it--they also have stormed it.

Wed. Nov. 25

Hookers men kept firing on the Rebs on Lookout Mountains until about 9 P.M. yesterday. About noon we were ordered to the front, a short distance. About 2 P.M. we charged on Missionary Ridge and took it. We captured about 6,000 prisoners and 40 cannons. We then followed the Rebs about 3 miles. The 64th lost but few. None killed or wounded in Co E.

Thurs. Nov 26

Last night moved out to Chicamanga Creek about 8 miles but captured no train. We lay at the creek until about middle of P.M. when we started for camp. Got there at dusk. Have orders to move tomorrow morning.

Fri. Nov. 27

Last night orders we countermanded. Sent a letter home. Hoard that we had taken altogether 14,000 prisoners and 80 cannons. Reports say Burnside has taken 1700 prisoners. More are expected as some are said to be cut off from the main army.

Sat. Nov. 28

Rainy day. Orders to move 7 A.M. Did not go until 2 P.M. Came about 8 miles. Part way through roads almost impassable with mud. Got lost and stopped in the woods.

Sun. Nov 29

Marched 10 or 12 miles.

Mon. Nov. 30

Last night we were told we were to relieve Burnside at Knoxville--he was surrounded by Longstreet.
