

6 Ohio Battery Veterans arrived here last Wednesday.
Joel Hersh was to see me today.

Mon. Feb. 22
Was at work this A. M. loading oats.

Tues. Feb. 22
Today a detail was sent to Mission Ridge to cut wood.
4 went from this room. 65 Ohio Battery started home today.

Wed. Feb. 24 Was handling sacks this A.M. This afternoon I slipped off went to see Hershes boys and Wash Williams. Trago got a pair of pants at 65 O.V.I. camp which he gave to me. I saved them and got them washed.

Thurs. Feb. 25
Pleasant day. Was out near Mission Ridge cutting wood.
Got in about 3 P.M.

Fri. Feb. 25
Handled sacks this P.M. Felt quite tired this evening.

Sat. Feb. 27
Pleasant day. This 2nd Division Conv. started , except about 15 of us who could not get on the cars.

Sab. Feb 28
This morning we started for Loudon. Got as far as Cleveland where we had to stop on account of there being too many to go. We are now quartered in an unfinished brick Church.

Mon. Feb. 29
Left Cleveland about 1 P.M. and got to Loudon about 7½ o'clock. 6 of us slept in a car through the night and came to 3rd Ky. l.e.

Tues Mar. 1
Where I staid, because I was accounted for here, the other boys had to report to Brigade Hd Qrs. and were sent to an old barn to stay until they could be assigned to a Regt. Received 6 letters this morning. Wrote a letter home.

Wed. Mar. 2 Nice clear day. We had Co. drill twice. Wrote a letter to Wash Williams.

Thurs. Mar. 2 Nothing of note occurred. Most of our boys are on fatigue duty down in town.

Fri. Mar. 4
Had inspection at 11 A. M. of arms, clothing and quarters by Col. Harker.

Sat. Mar. 5
Was detailed on fatigue duty in town loading Hospital stores and unloading ammunition.

Sab. Mar. 6 Pleasant day. I was excused from duty. Col. Dunlap's wife and boy came this evening to see him.

Mon. Mar. 7
On camp guard today. A party from this Regt. went on a 5 day forage trip. Rain this afternoon.
