

Tues. Mar. 8

Today all except the guards and pickets went on fatigue duty. I was relieved from guard duty at 8 A.M. Had nothing to do since.

Wed. Mar. 9

Had two drills today. Feel pretty well.

Thurs. Mar. 10

Nothin particular occurred.

Fri. Mar. 11

I am detailed for picket tomorrow.

Sat. Mar. 12

I am on picket. Actin corp from the reserve to the out post is about a 100 rds. and is about $\frac{1}{2}$ that high.

Sab. Mar. 13

Came off picket this morning. Feel well.

Mon. Mar. 14

Tues Mar. 15

Wrote a letter home.

Wed. Mar. 15

On camp guard. Came near getting under arrest because a man in my care was drunk, but he got whiskey before he came to me. Took him (Riley Bullock) to the Provost Guards.

Thurs. Mar. 17

Do not feel well. Have a bad cold. Burnt a blister on my side for Pleurisy pain. Had to stay on guard all night and sleep out of doors.

Fri. Mar. 18

Excused from duty on account of my blister. Drew a blouse and pair of drawers.

Sat. Mar. 19

Beautiful day. This P.M. I am quite sick.

Sun. Mar. 20

Mon. Mar. 21

Today an order came from Gen. Granger for the non-veterans of the 64th and 65th to be permanently attached to 125 O. V. I. and a detail was sent out to cut timber for our houses.

Tues. Mar. 22

Today a Squad of men was sent for brick and boards. We also got a rumor that the President issued an order that all non-veterans should serve the remainder of their time in their old Regts. That will relieve us from the 125th. The snow has been falling very fast all day. About 6 inches fell. It is melting.

Wed. 23 Mar.

Pleasant day. The snow is melting.

Thurs. Mar. 24

Wrote a letter home.

Fri. Mar. 25

Saw an order this evening ordering all non-veterans to their own Regts. 125--so no Ohioans.
