

Tues. May 3

This morning I was marked to go to Nashville with others. Some went to convalescent hospital.

Wed. May 4

Last night about 11 P.M. was routed up and taken to the station and put on a hospital train and got to Stevenson by daylight. Lay over there until 3 P.M.

Thurs. May 5

I am now in Hospital No. 1, Nashville. We came through most of the way at night. Arrived at this place about daylight. Wrote a letter home.

Fri. May 6

I expected to rest a few days but am to be sent this evening --am on the cars to Louisville.

Sat. May 7

Arrived at Louisville at daylight. Was sent to hospital No. 1 but was sent to Jeffersonville Hospital in the P.M. It is a nice place. I am very tired and weak.

Sun. May 8

I met my friend Harding here and others whom I knew. I receive good attention here.

Mon. May 9

I am quite sick and weak today.

Tues. May 10

This is a cool day. Raining this evening.

Wed. May 11

Cool today. Rained nearly all night and just before daylight it commenced and snowed quite a skift of snow.

Thurs. May 12

Cool day but no rain.

Fri. May 13

Weather somewhat moderated.

Sat. May 14

Pleasant day but cool outside.

Sun. May 15

Had inspection. Dr. was picking out some to send away but said he would keep me under his care until he go me discharged.

Mon. May 16

Today about 20 went from this ward, but this P.M. was filled up with new patients.

Tues. May 17

I was to be examined for discharge but Drs. did not get around.

Wed. May 18

Had the offer of a carriage if the Dr. was willing.

Thurs. May 19

Took a ride to Jeffersonville and back. I enjoyed the ride very much. Miss Buckel was the lady who furnished the horses and carriage.

Fri. May 20

Quite warm today. Do not feel very well.

Sat. May 21

Feel well today.
